

THE DIRECTOR OF
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

National Intelligence Council

2 May 1986

NOTE TO: NIO/GPF
NIO/S&T
NIO/ECON
EUR/Research Director

FROM: George Kolt
NIO for Europe

Please look at the attached and give
me any comments or further suggestions by
COB Wednesday, 7 May.

/s/
George Kolt

Attachment
Proposed NIE Plan FY-87

~~SECRET~~

DRAFT

SECRET

DRAFT

Proposed NIO/EUR
NIE Plan for FY-87
(2 May 1986)

1. Prospects for Military/Security Cooperation between the Major West European Countries.

Carryover from FY 86

2. Turkey: The Critical Years

Will examine the domestic and international pressures that Turkey will be facing in the period leading to the 1988 election and their implications for the US.

3. Western Europe and Extended Air Defense

Will examine the strategic purposes, politics, and indigenous technological capabilities that will shape Western Europe's decisions on extended air defense. Will look at the implications of those decisions for Western European attitudes toward SDI.

(To be done in coordination with NIOs GPF and S&T.)

4. The Future of the European Community's Agricultural Policy.

Will look at the pressures for and against changing the current heavy European subsidization of agriculture and the implications of the EC's decisions for the world market and the US.

(To be done with NIO/Economics.)

5. East European Protest Movements: Impetuses and Barriers to Cooperation.

Will look at nascent East European protests movements (religious, ecological, pacifist, etc.), the possibilities of cooperation across national boundaries, and the implications for East and West.

6. The Non-Soviet Warsaw Pact States and the Third World.

Will examine the roles of the NSWP states in the Third World, the degree of to which their activities are coordinated with or run in parallel with those of the USSR, and the implications for the West.

7. East Germany: Self-proclaimed Exemplary Soviet Ally?

Will look at the East German government's increasing sense of self-satisfaction and the elements of cooperation and friction between it, the USSR, and the other NonSoviet Warsaw Pact States.

SECRET

THE DIRECTOR OF
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

National Intelligence Council

2 May 1986

NOTE TO: NIO/GPF — No comment (phone)
NIO/S&T — (out of town) (phone)
NIO/ECON — No reply
EURA/Research Director

FROM: George Kolt
NIO for Europe

Please look at the attached and give
me any comments or further suggestions by
COB Wednesday, 7 May.

15/
George Kolt

Attachment
Proposed NIE Plan FY-87

DRAFT

SECRET

DRAFT

Proposed NIO/EURNIE Plan for FY-87(2 May 1986)

1. Prospects for Military/Security Cooperation between the Major West European Countries.

Carryover from FY 86

2. Turkey: The Critical Years

Will examine the domestic and international pressures that Turkey will be facing in the period leading to the 1988 election and their implications for the US.

3. Western Europe and Extended Air Defense

Will examine the strategic purposes, politics, and indigenous technological capabilities that will shape Western Europe's decisions on extended air defense. Will look at the implications of those decisions for Western European attitudes toward SDI.

(To be done in coordination with NIOs GPF and S&T.)

4. The Future of the European Community's Agricultural Policy.

Will look at the pressures for and against changing the current heavy European subsidization of agriculture and the implications of the EC's decisions for the world market and the US.

(To be done with NIO/Economics.)

5. East European Protest Movements: Impetuses and Barriers to Cooperation.

Will look at nascent East European protests movements (religious, ecological, pacifist, etc.), the possibilities of cooperation across national boundaries, and the implications for East and West.

6. The Non-Soviet Warsaw Pact States and the Third World.

Will examine the roles of the NSWP states in the Third World, the degree of to which their activities are coordinated with or run in parallel with those of the USSR, and the implications for the West.

7. East Germany: Self-proclaimed Exemplary Soviet Ally?

Will look at the East German government's increasing sense of self-satisfaction and the elements of cooperation and friction between it, the USSR, and the other NonSoviet Warsaw Pact States.